

GEN. VILLA HAS TAKEN ZACATECAS

The Federals Suffer 4,000 Killed and Over 2,000 Wounded

FIVE DAYS OF FIGHTING

Before City Surrendered in What is Said to Have Been the Most Hotly Contested Battle of the Revolution.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Zacatecas, Zac., Mex., June 24.—(Delayed in transmission over military wires)—The fiercest fighting on both sides and unusually high loss of life to both federal and constitutionalists, ended last night in the capture of Zacatecas by General Villa's forces. It required five days of battle to take the federal stronghold of central Mexico.

The federals under General Medina Barron defended their positions stubbornly. But they finally were overcome by the forces of General Villa and General Natera. The constitutionalist soldiers scaled hill after hill and mountain after mountain, killing and wounding thousands of federals and suffering heavy losses themselves. So far it has been impossible to obtain accurate estimate of losses on both sides. The heaps of dead on the mountain sides and in the city bore testimony of the ferocity of the fighting.

General Villa was in the center of the attacking party. Five members of his staff, accompanying him, were wounded. The number of constitutionalist officers killed or wounded, was unusually great. General Trinidad Rodriguez, one of the best of Villa's brigade commanders, was shot through the throat and is not expected to live.

The constitutionalists in many cases had to advance on hands and knees as those below on the steep inclines passed the rifles from hand to hand. These feats were accomplished under heavy machine gun fire.

Nothing seemed to lessen the determination of Villa's troops, though the federals had thrown up trenches and redoubts on all sides. Hill sides afforded no cover for the attacking troops.

The cordon of defense gradually narrowed until the last hills on the outskirts of the city fell into the hands of Villa's men.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Zacatecas, Mexico, June 25.—After four days of preliminary fighting, the final assault on Zacatecas took place Tuesday, resulting in the capture of the city by the constitutionalists at 7:30 p. m. The dead on the federal side, according to official figures, numbered 4,000 and over 2,000 wounded while the losses to the attacking side were not stated definitely, though General Villa estimates his casualties at 500 dead and 800 wounded. The battle was the most hotly contested during the present revolution in the belief of leaders here. Fourteen thousand federals were entrenched in seemingly impregnable positions.

Five thousand prisoners were captured by Villa's troops. Twelve cannon, nine military trains, six thousand rifles and three carloads of cannon and rifle ammunition were captured.

The federals were reported to have dynamited many buildings of the city before evacuating, slaying those of Villa's troops who had occupied the buildings in the street fighting.

General Villa himself gave the following account of the battle: "After four days hard attacks today was the decisive one. The enemy, numbering 14,000, commanded by Medina Barron and five other generals, was defeated completely by my forces which were commanded effectively by General Natera. Up to this moment, we have five thousand prisoners, twelve cannon, nine trains, two car loads of rifle ammunition and cannon shells and nearly six thousand Mauser rifles and a large quantity of provisions and other munitions of war.

"The enemy who escaped went in the direction of Aguas Calientes, after dynamiting the postoffice, the state treasurer's office and the stamp revenue office buildings. The explosions killed many of our men and destroyed part of the city. The dead of the enemy number about 4,000 and 2,000 wounded.

"On our part we cannot tell the losses of the battle, which lasted for five consecutive days, but I think there are not more than 500 dead and 800 wounded. Among the latter are Generals Herrera and Rodriguez, who were severely wounded. Our artillery operated splendidly. The federals destroyed every fort, the last being El Grillo."

ENTIRE NORTHERN PART OF MEXICO IN HANDS OF REBELS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) El Paso, Texas, June 25.—The taking of Zacatecas by Villa's troops places the entire northern part of Mexico and much more than half of the Republic's territory in the hands of the Constitutionalists.

It also marks another stage in the race of three rival constitutionalist leaders to Mexico City. General Villa from Zacatecas probably will move against Aguas Calientes almost directly to the south and whence the remnants of the Zacatecas garrison retreated General Pablo Gonzales, the eastern divisional commander who took Tampico has been ordered to take San Luis Potosi, now weakened by an almost complete evacuation.

General Alvaro Obregon, commander of the army of the west is about to attack Guadalajara. If successful his troops would have even a clearer road to the national capital than those of Villa or Gonzales. Guadalajara, far to the south, and next to Mexico City the largest city in Mexico, affords a roadway to the national capital through a rich country which easily could sustain a large army.

John Ridenour Attempts Suicide at City Prison; Is Discovered In Time

The short space of two minutes stood between John Ridenour and death, in the city prison Thursday forenoon. Two other prisoners discovered Ridenour's unconscious form hanging from a cell bar, cut him down and gave the alarm to Turnkey George McClure at 11:40.

When "Deuce" Kelly and another prisoner named Minor found Ridenour, his face was discolored and his tongue was protruding. Drs. H. B. Anderson and P. H. Cosner declared the man would have been dead within two minutes.

With heroic treatment he regained consciousness within half an hour after being released from his self-imposed death sentence. He was transferred to the county jail late in the afternoon and it is probable a jury inquest will be held Friday to determine his sanity.

Ridenour was sent to the city prison a few days ago pending execution of a workhouse sentence imposed by Mayor Bigbee, in default of Ridenour's payment of a $50 fine and costs on the charge of being an habitual offender. He was last arrested on a charge of intoxication.

It is understood he has twice served workhouse sentences this year, and two years ago he was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Columbus. On his release two months later he told Turnkey Geo. Taylor, of the county jail, that he had been only feigning insanity in order to get "sent up" for the winter.

Ridenour offered no explanation of his attempt at suicide.

He had torn his shirt into a strip and fastened one end of it to his cell bars and the other around his neck, then swung off a stool to die.

PEACE IN SIGHT FOR MEXICANS

Warring Factions Endeavoring to Select a New President and Cabinet

ALL PROTOCOLS SIGNED

A. B. C. Envoys and American Delegates Await Outcome—U. S. Troops Will Be Withdrawn Upon Recognition of New Government.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Niagara Falls, Ont., June 25.—Peace between the United States and Mexico rests today on a single condition—the establishment of a new provisional government along lines which will justify the world in according it recognition. Mexican factions have given guaranty that they will exert every effort to earn this reward.

Five weeks of the mediation conducted by Argentina, Brazil and Chile resulted in the completion last night of protocols agreeing that the diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico shall be restored and all other international difficulties considered settled when a new provisional government succeeds the Huerta administration.

Upon the representatives of the two warring factions—the constitutionalists and Huerta government—devolves the task now of selecting a provisional president and his cabinet to serve in the interim while the country is being pacified and made ready for a general presidential election.

Mediation does not adjourn. The diplomats and the American delegates will lend their counsel and advice wherever possible to the delegates of the two factions as they meet in informal conference.

The meeting place has not been determined but as Niagara Falls, Ontario, is neutral soil, and the Huerta delegation, mediators and American delegates are comfortably fixed here, this is most likely to be continued as the place of conference.

When the two parties to Mexico's civil strife shall have adjusted the internal problem of their course the mediation board will formally reconvene and protocolize the result. A date will be fixed for formal recognition of the new government and a period set within which the United States will withdraw its troops and ships from Vera Cruz.

The incentive to the participants to the informal conference for a quick agreement is that the United States stands ready to withdraw her forces from Mexican soil after an agreement has been reached. The mediation conference has discretely left to the Mexican factions themselves the work of settling the internal problems of their country.

The situation was brought to its present status only after mediation many times had seemed ready to collapse. The exclusion of constitutionalists from a voice in proceedings had alienated their interest, when later the United States government announced that it would be useless to make any agreement on the international problem of Mexico—its provisional president—unless the constitutionalists approved.

President Wilson laid the situation before Minister Naon in Washington last Friday. The President in effect said that the constitutionalists must have a share in the political destinies of the nation; they had demonstrated their capacities in their military successes and there could be no pacification without them.

Accordingly there was devised a plan which was put into effect in just five days. The Huerta delegates and the American commissioners agreed upon all plans in the peace program but those relating to the personnel and organization of the new provisional government and the time when American forces would be withdrawn from Vera Cruz.

Late last night the signatures of the two sets of delegates and the mediating plenipotentiaries were affixed to the protocols.

Coincident with the signing of the protocols, the mediators issued a statement setting forth the reasons why they had been unable to admit constitutionalists previously, and stating that they had decided to leave the internal problem to the Mexicans themselves to adjust. The invitation to representatives of the two factions to meet in conference and agree on the form of the new administration was incorporated in the minutes of the proceedings.

The mediators and delegates were happy today. They felt that a long stride toward international peace in Mexico had been taken through the practical settlement of the international differences. Others were skeptical but only because the two factions have hitherto been irreconcilable. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2.)

Receivers Named By the Court For Big New York Dry Goods Establishment

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, June 25.—The vast Clafin dry goods enterprise collapsed today with the appointment of receivers in New York for the wholesale house of the H. B. Clafin Company and the announcement that nearly thirty retail stores throughout the country would be closed. The liabilities of the firm are estimated at $35,000,000. The assets at more than $40,000,000. Over extended credits caused the failure, the largest of its kind in the history of the country.

Though affiliated with the bankrupt firm through stock control, the United Dry Goods Companies and the Associated Merchants Company, together with their stores in New York and elsewhere, were not involved in the failure. It was stated their financial position was strong.

For the retail stores in the Clafin string ancillary receivers will be named, and they will remain closed pending an adjustment of the parent company's tangled affairs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, June 25.—The great dry goods house of H. B. Clafin and company failed today with liabilities of $35,000,000. The assets are estimated at $40,000,000.

Two proceedings—friendly and unfriendly—threw the firm into bankruptcy and two receivers were named under bonds of $500,000 each.

The Clafin company controls or is affiliated with some thirty retail stores throughout the United States and it was the indorsement of their paper, held by more than three thousand banks, here and in interior cities that caused the crash.

The United Dry Goods companies and the Associated Merchants company, though affiliated with the Clafin company through stock control, were in no way involved in the failure.

Their chain of stores, it was stated in the financial district, would remain intact. Hope was expressed also that the Clafin retail enterprises would be saved.

Unless blocked by creditors a reorganization of the failed firm is contemplated, according to a statement issued by John Clafin, the president.

The unprecedented shifting of trade centers in New York has caused great loss to many interests. In the case of the H. B. Clafin company the upturn movement of business has seriously curtailed our wholesale profits and has compelled us to rely mainly on the profits from financing retail stores throughout the country.

Their rapidly expanding business has occasioned large capital requirements which we have not been able to meet. A receivership has therefore become necessary pending a readjustment of the affairs of the company. A plan of reorganization for the H. B. Clafin company will soon be presented which we hope will prove acceptable both to creditors and to stockholders. "The Associated Merchants company and the United Dry Goods companies are not themselves borrowers of money. They are in exceedingly strong financial position and the success of their retail stores is assured." A note holders' protective committee has been formed to look after the interests of the creditors.

Interested merchants were closeted with J. P. Morgan and other prominent bankers day and night for the past week in an attempt to avert the failure. It is understood that $30,000,000 was necessary.

"Mr. Morgan and others were most generous," said one who participated in the conferences, "but it was a question of raising the whole amount or not at all."

Joseph E. Martindale, president of the Chemical National bank and Frederick A. Juilliard, a wholesale dry goods merchant were the receivers appointed. They were named in the friendly proceedings—two suits in equity—one brought by John C. Ems, vice-president of the H. B. Clafin company the other by William P. O'Dell.

There were also involuntary proceedings which sought the appointment of different receivers and alleged that the company was insolvent. These proceedings were instituted by small creditors.

The petition in the Eames suit," said John T. McGovern, attorney for these creditors—"alleges present insolvency." (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

BECKER STARTS WRITING A BOOK ON EXPERIENCES

Ossining, N. Y., June 25.—Charles S. Becker, the convicted murderer of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, has moved his belongings from the top tier of cells and began writing a book on his experiences as a New York policeman.

The execution of Peter Rebacco on Monday left vacant the second largest cell in the death house and Becker was permitted to occupy it. The cell he occupied during his previous stay in Sing Sing and known as the "lucky cell" may not be vacated for several months.

On his return to the death house after his second trial, Becker's first request was for the "lucky cell," asserting that he enjoyed the right of preference because of his service as a public servant. This request was denied and Becker had to wait for an execution to secure better quarters.

JOHNSON SAYS MORAN WON'T LAST OVER 12 ROUNDS

Paris, June 25.—Jack Johnson, the colored American pugilist, firmly believes his fight on Saturday with Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, will not last longer than 12 rounds and that at the end of the bout he will still be champion. Johnson said this today while he was doing his last day's real training for the encounter. His work tomorrow will be light, and on Saturday he intends to rest.

Moran rose early today and with several companions took a long brisk walk, varied by sprints. In the afternoon he boxed with several sparring partners including Tom Kennedy.

STOCK MARKET WEAK ON ACCOUNT OF RECEIVERSHIP

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 25.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who returned last night from Europe where he had gone to attend the wedding of his son, Kermit, permitted himself no rest today but immediately got to work on his correspondence and other matters which accumulated in his absence.

Politics will be Mr. Roosevelt's chief pursuit for the next four months, according to his own statement made just before he retired early today after reaching his home at Sagamore Hill.

"My career as a geographer ended tonight," he declared. "For the next four months, I suppose I shall be a politician."

SAFE BLOWING CHARGE AGAINST TWO PRISONERS

Affidavits were filed Thursday morning by Charles Pence of Hebron before Mayor T. M. White of that village against Joe Donahue and William Donahue, charging them with blowing the safe in his store at that place last week. The two men are already in custody, having been arrested Wednesday afternoon in West Main street, Newark, and taken to the county jail. There was nothing found on their persons to in any way implicate them in the crime according to Police Chief James Sheridan, but Pence is certain enough of their identity to file the affidavits.

A WOMAN WILL PRESIDE AT THE DIVORCE TRIAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Terre Haute, Ind., June 25.—For the first time in the history of Vigo county courts, a woman, Miss Grace H. O'Neill, will preside as judge in a divorce hearing here Saturday, when the case of Mrs. Perdita Griffith against Vorhees N. Griffith, city comptroller, is called. Miss O'Neill is the official stenographer of the Vigo Superior court and a member of the bar. She was appointed special judge yesterday by Judge John Cox of the Superior court.

Miss Carrie Hyde, also a member of the Vigo bar served as special judge recently in the Probate court here.

WILL CLOSE THE SALOONS DURING ETOR'S HEARING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Steubenville, June 25.—Sheriff Huscroft and a large party of deputies left here today for Dillonvale, Ohio, to close the saloons during the hearing of Joseph Ettor; Industrial Workers of the World leader who faces a charge of inciting to riot. These precautions were taken because of the excitement which followed an attempt by the Dillonvale police last night when several persons were hurt. Ettor, who has been working among the striking miners of eastern Ohio, is said to have attracted a large number of foreigners to his banner.

ONE DEAD MANY HURT IN WRECK

Big Interurban Car Jumps Track Going Down Steep Grade

HIT WALL OF TUNNEL

Passengers Were Returning From Picnic at Vermilion—The Injured Were Taken to Hospital at Lorain.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Lorain, O., June 25.—One man was killed, another fatally injured and ten other persons seriously hurt early today when an east bound car on the Lake Shore Electric railway got beyond control on the steep grade leading to the sub-way under the Nickel Plate railroad tracks two miles west of here, jumped the track and tipped over. The dead man is Motorman Elias Hopp, who died at the hospital here soon after the accident. He stuck to his post, vainly trying to use the airbrakes which refused to work.

The big interurban, as it jumped the tracks and rolled over, crashed against the concrete wall of the tunnel, the front half being literally reduced to kindling.

Most of the passengers were returning from picnics at Crystal Beach, Vermilion. They were all hurled from their seats and thrown to the floor. Every one aboard was cut or bruised.

A special car was rushed to the scene and brought the injured to the Lorain hospital.

Irvin Broker, of Lorain, riding a motorcycle close to the track, was caught in the crash and thrown under the car. His right leg was broken and his skull fractured. He has but a slight chance of recovery.

The injured: Helen Miller, Lorain, right hand crushed, badly bruised about the body.

Irvin Broker, Lorain, leg broken, skull fractured.

Lillian Bean, Lorain, right shoulder blade broken, bruised.

Fred Wolf, Lorain, badly cut about the head.

Frank Bean, Lorain, right leg broken, cut by flying glass.

James Royan, Lorain, leg cut, scalp wounds.

William Murphy, Vermilion, two ribs fractured.

Mrs. John Smith, Lorain, side bruised, hand crushed.

Julia Miller, Lorain, neck cut, body bruised.

Martha Miller, Lorain, hurt about the neck.

R. H. Flater, Vermilion, conductor of car, back and shoulders bruised.

Ralph Denosh, Lorain, hand crushed.

This is the second serious wreck which has occurred in the same spot within the last few years, the first one taking place under identical circumstances.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN THE VALUATIONS OF CORPORATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, June 25.—Only a slight increase was made in aggregate taxable valuations of water works, artificial gas, pipe line and union depot companies in Ohio, over their valuation of 1913, according to the report of the state tax commission made public today.

Aggregate valuations of water transportation companies were more than doubled solely because of increases of two companies. The Cleveland and Buffalo Transit Company was valued at $956,920 this year, and only $321,660 last year. The Pennsylvania-Ontario Transportation Company was valued this year at $181,240 and last year at only $85,820.

ROOSEVELT IS BACK FROM HIS EUROPEAN TRIP

New York, June 25.—The stock market was weak at the opening, the Clafin receivership exerting an unfavorable influence. Five hundred shares of United Dry Goods preferred, one of the Clafin Companies sold at 73, a decline of 12 points in the early dealings. The balance of the list showed losses of as much as a point in some of the important issues.

FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Charleston, W. Va., June 25.—In the hope that the state will be able to properly distribute labor, sending idle men to points where they are needed J. H. Nightengale, commissioner of labor, today announced that a free employment bureau will be opened here. This action is taken under an act of the legislature of 1901 but never enforced.

WISCONSIN VETERAN COACH HAS CREW READY FOR BIG RACE

The Wisconsin crew at Poughkeepsie this year, is giving some of the more thoughtful experts something to consider. They believe that condition, has a crew that will be in the money. He has been with the Vespers Boat Club in Baltimore. He is probably the oldest rowing coach in the United States with the exception of Courtney. Though he is only fifty-three years of age he has rowed and coached for thirty-four years.

FIFTEEN CREWS NOW READY FOR THE BIG RACE

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 25.—The 15 crews representing Cornell, Syracuse, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Washington and Wisconsin have completed training and virtually are ready for the contests on the Hudson Friday afternoon. All the crews were on the water Wednesday afternoon, and evening, but the work was confined to easy rowing and practice starts.

Baseball Brevities

McCarthy, the Newark ball player with the Indianapolis Association team, is playing regularly and has been doing well in left field for the Hoosiers. In Wednesday's game he made a double and triple, scored a run, and fielded perfectly.

Washington celebrated Walter Johnson's wedding day and its return from a disastrous western trip Wednesday by taking two games from the champion Athletics, by scores of 4 to 3 and 2 to 1. Boelling and Johnson were in top form, allowing only seven hits in the two games.

There is a pretty race between Detroit, St. Louis and Washington for place in the American league, the clubs standing at the end of Wednesday's contest in the order named but the difference between them is less than one full game. The Athletics were pulled closer to the bunch by their defeat Wednesday in two games, by the Nationals.

Chicago on Wednesday broke Corvaleskie's record for runless innings, 32-2-3, and incidentally defeated Detroit 3 to 2.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Ty Cobb Wednesday, charging disturbance of the peace. The complainant is a meat dealer whom Cobb had a fight with last Saturday, in which the ball player injured his thumb so that he has since been out of the game.

Umpire Al. Orth of the National league, fell down the subway leading to the Philadelphia players' bench, and strained the ligaments of his right knee and elbow. He will be out of the game probably several weeks.

Merz of Indianapolis hit a freak home run in the fifth at Kansas City, the ball going through a hole in the fence in left field.

Rube Marquard was in great fettle Wednesday, allowing Boston only four hits and shutting them out 4 to 0.

There is a letter in this office for the manager of the C. A. C. base ball team from Columbus. Please call on the sporting editor and get the same, as it is marked "important."

300 CHERRY PICKERS.
Some 300 cherry pickers yesterday began the work of picking the fruit from the 5,000 cherry trees in the Heffner & Pickett orchard, east of Clyde, says the Fremont News. The crop this year is estimated at 200 tons and will bring $100 a ton. The entire crop is sold to the Gypsum Canning company, which has erected a canning factory near the orchard and will can all the fruit. The same company has just completed canning a lot of rhubarb.

WALTER JOHNSON TAKES A BRIDE AT WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 25.—Walter Johnson, pitcher of the Washington American League baseball team, and Miss Hazel Lee Roberts, daughter of Representative E. E. Roberts of Nevada, were married here last night at the home of the bride's parents.

Only members of the Robert family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Frettingham, chaplain of the senate. The pitcher and his bride will not have their honeymoon until after the end of the baseball season.

Miss Roberts and her mother saw Johnson pitch his way to victory against the world's champion Athletics in the afternoon. The bride came to Washington three years ago when her father was elected to the Sixty-second congress. Johnson, although a veteran in the baseball world, is only 26 years old. His home is in Coffeyville, Kansas, where he owns a ranch.

ability to pay debts, but does not allege absolute insolvency. The answer of the company admits this present inability. Our petition, however, alleges absolute insolvency. In their answer they will probably deny that they are insolvent; but we will seek to have different receivers appointed to protect our clients; unless in the reorganization proceedings, a satisfactory adjustment is made of their claims.

Receivers Martindale and Juilliard said that the failure was of such tremendous proportions that it would be several weeks before it would be possible to know where they stand. Though the failure is perhaps the most important in the history of the dry goods trade in this country New York bankers predict that the chief and perhaps only potential general effect will be temporary demoralization in the dry goods trade.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, June 25.—Receivers were named today for the vast wholesale drygoods establishment of the H. B. Claflin and company. Associated companies were not involved.

The receivers were named as a result of a suit in equity filed in the district court. Judge Learned Hand names as receivers Joseph B. Martindale, president of the Chemical National Bank and Frederick A. Juilliard, a member of the firm of A. B. Juilliard & Company, under bonds of $500,000 each.

The H. B. Claflin Company, of which John Claflin is president, was organized in 1890 to conduct a wholesale dry goods business. It is controlled by the Associated Merchants company, which is in turn controlled by the United Dry Goods companies.

The United Dry Goods companies was incorporated under the laws of Delaware, May 21, 1909, to consolidate the dry goods interests of John Claflin in New York and other cities. The company acquired in exchange for $9,312,000 of its common stock a like amount of the capital stock of the Associated Merchants company, giving it a majority, the latter already holding control of the following companies: The H. B. Claflin company, James McCreery company, O'Neill Adams company, C. G. Turner Sons, all of New York; J. N. Adams & company, of Buffalo, and Stewart & Company, of Baltimore.

The companies also bought outright from John Claflin the entire business of Hahne & Company of Newark, N. J. Powers Mercantile company of Minneapolis; William Hengerer company of Buffalo, and the Stewart Dry Goods company of Louisville, Ky. In June, 1910, control of Lord & Taylor of New York City was acquired.

The officers are: John Claflin, president; Louis Stewart, vice president and treasurer; J. C. Eames, second vice president and directors Lewis Stewart, Howard Davis, George F. Crane, Ernest Stauffen, Jr., John H. Stewart, W. M. Barrett, John Claflin and Thos. F. Bayard. The total net income for 1913 was $2,083,751, dividends on preferred stock being $754,883 and on common stock $1,154,200, a final surplus of $174,698. The percentage earned on preferred stock was 10.24 per cent, and on common stock 9.21 per cent.

The receivership caused a flurry in the financial district, although rumors that something was impending were rife all day yesterday. It was asserted in banking circles that the many retail subsidiaries affiliated with the interests would be taken care of.

The appointment of receivers is ascribed to an over extension of credits.

It is understood that the Claflin company controls about 28 dry goods firms throughout the United States, distinct and apart from those affiliated with the United Dry Goods companies. Between 2,500 and 3,000 banks hold paper of these stores. Twenty-five or thirty of the larger discount banks in this city are creditors for large amounts.

The liabilities of the firm are estimated at about $35,000,000. The assets are $14,000,000.

Readers' View Point

The Advocate assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed in the column headed "Readers' View-point." Communications from our readers should be short, plainly written and should be signed though the signature will not be printed if it is so requested. These communications should be upon subjects in which there is general interest and they must be free from abuse or extravagant statements that tend to provoke controversy.

Retail Clerks' Pamphlet.
I was handed recently a pamphlet issued by the Retail Clerks Union containing a list of Union retail stores, 63 in number, also containing list of 5 non-union retail stores but as the pamphlet puts it, 5 stores that have as yet not signed the retail clerks agreement (though they may be abiding by union rules.)

Is it possible that we have only 63 retail stores in a city of over 25,000 inhabitants? That is how it would look to a stranger.

On consulting the Newark classified business directory found 205 retail stores not on either list. This makes a total of 210 retail stores who seemingly are not union yet the names of only 5 were selected to be published. Why this discrimination? Unions have the reputation of being fair and I cannot help but feel that I am mistaken in my judgment of the Retail Clerks Union and think it was merely an oversight that 205 names were omitted from the list and that it was not intentional to advertise and make stand the brand only 5 of the smaller stores out of a total of 210.

Road Building.
To the Farmers of Licking Co.

I would like to say a word in regard to the new pikes, which are being constructed through our county and elsewhere. They are too extravagant for the farmer to stand them; they could be made many thousands of dollars cheaper per mile and could be made better roads.

The roads are being widened out to 60 feet, thus fences are torn down and also shade trees, the road beds are being graded to eight feet high and big ditches from 4 to 8 feet deep are left on each side of the road and 15 to 20 feet on each side cannot be traveled, thus making the highway dangerous. On one mile of the Columbus Road, near Granville, from $15 to $20,000 damage has been done to the settlers along the side of it, and besides they are being taxed so much a foot for constructing the road. Taxes must be paid also on the old roads, which have good beds of gravel and which has been hauled for the last 50 or 75 years; now these are graded over with loose dirt from 2 to 8 feet thick and a thin bed of worthless stones, in places with some crushed limestone on top, 16 feet wide. In a very short time, the stones will be swallowed up in the loose clay. That is no foundation at all for the pike; the old roads would be a much better foundation than loose dirt and clay.

Forty feet of road would be wide enough and have the sides graded up and have it 25 to 30 feet wide and no ditches on each side. We have a right to judge every man and officer by his works; therefore, the farmers and taxpayers of this neighborhood have come to the conclusion that there are unqualified officers at the head of it.

In addition the farmers have from 3 to 10 feet grade to drive to their yards and fields from the road. Farmers and taxpayers! Are we going to give up to such work as this? I say—No. Let us line up and demand our rights. (We taxpayers, are the rulers of this country, and the officers are our servants. Let us hear from some of our good writers and experimenter farmers in regard to the roads. D. W. Granville, O., June 25, 1914.

AUNT SALLY'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS

K. C. F. says: "My skin becomes so gray every summer, and this so attracts dirt and dirt, I have an awful time keeping my face clean looking. Can you suggest anything?" The editor mentioned in reply to Eloise will overcome this condition. D. N. A. writes: "How can I get rid of freckles and wrinkles about the mouth corners?" Use a wash lotion prepared by dissolving 4 oz. powdered salicylic acid in 2 pt. white hazel. This tightens the skin, dispersing the freckles, and its tonic effect is more than temporary. Eloise says: "My freckles are worse than ever this year, made double compared with last year. Is there any cure?" Ask your druggist for an ounce of mercurized wax, apply nightly like cold cream, removing in the morning with warm water. As the wax gradually, harmlessly absorbs the affected cuticle, not only the freckles vanish, but the new and younger skin which appears will have a healthy color. Woman's Advertiser.

BUSINESS COLLEGE

PURCHASED BY E. D. CRIM WHO WILL OPERATE IT IN FUTURE

New Owner Comes Highly Recommended and Has Had Much Experience in Business College Work.

Negotiations were closed Wednesday by which Mr. E. D. Crim, who comes here from the commercial department of the Pittsburg high school, purchases Bliss Business college, West Park Place, in its entirety, taking possession immediately, and starting at once to carry out a program of general improvement which, he declares, will place the school on a basis second to none in the state.

The school formerly was owned by T. Yates, of Boston, Mass., and was established here by the man whose name it has borne, Mr. Bliss.

In taking over the school, its average enrollment of 100 day students, and its equipment, Mr. Crim is not embarking in any new venture. For fifteen years he has been in business colleges and high schools teaching, commercial branches, and for seven years he was president and owner of three very progressive and successful schools—Marion Business college, Hamilton Business college, and Chillicothe Business college.

Mr. Crim's extensive personal acquaintance with business men in various parts of the state affords him good opportunities for placing his graduates. It will be the purpose of the new owner of the school it is announced, to make it an institution for the business concerns of Newark as well as for the students and the school, and in this connection the new owner announces a policy of co-operation with the public schools. Mr. Crim will give his personal attention to instruction in his school, and will select his assistants from teachers of reputation in their lines whom he knows by experience.

The college will be equipped with new furniture, new typewriters, a multigraph for public copy work, and an up-to-date business outfit for all modern commercial methods practiced by the business houses of today.

Mr. Crim carries a number of personal endorsement letters from business firms, high school, instructors and pupils, attesting the thoroughness of his methods.

Mr. Crim announces that the school will be known as the Newark Business College, the name that has been used by Prof. S. L. Beene who retired, at least temporarily from active teaching. Mr. Crim will not use the name of Bliss College.

PEACE IN SIGHT

cible in their opinion as how the government should be constituted and because an armistice has not yet been declared or promised.

While there are breakers ahead for the two Mexican delegations when they begin to discuss names for provisional president there is confidence that the two sets of Mexicans will be influenced by the great responsibility which will be placed upon them. The success or failure of the entire peace program, international as well as national, depends on the results of the meeting.

Mexico's capacity for self-government will be placed on trial. Should it fail, the occupation by a foreign army to bring order out of chaos is less likely to be considered a violation of sovereignty than a humane act such as the allied nations performed in China.

Should an agreement be reached between the two factions it is believed an armistice will be declared immediately and details of the transition arranged without further bloodshed.

That the constitutionalist chief will assent is believed likely here, as General Villa admittedly the strongest military factor in the situation, is understood to be in thorough sympathy with the conference.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF DENISON IS WELL ATTENDED

(Special to the Advocate.)

Granville, O., June 25.—The Denison University Summer school opened with an enrollment of one hundred and eighty students. This enrollment is particularly gratifying as it means somewhat over two hundred before the week is over.

All departments are running but with the greater attendance in the normal course as was to be expected in view of the demands of the new school law which requires every teacher, no matter what his or her experience may have been, to do six weeks work each summer, one half of which is to be professional training. While the normal department has the largest attendance, the number of those registered for college credit is highly satisfactory.

In connection with the normal department a practice school of four grades is in operation with Miss Colhoun of Cleveland and Miss Roberts of Columbus in charge. Half day sessions are held for the youngsters in these sections. This model school permits the student teachers to meet the requirements of the law for practice teaching under expert supervision.

The largest department from the point of view of numbers is the department of the Department of Education. Miss Hoover with her training class for teachers of English in the grades has proved a great drawing card; her classes are well attended.

The beautiful situation has appealed to the strangers who are here for the first time. There seems to be no doubt that Denison is destined to have one of the most successful and enthusiastic summer schools in the state. Dean Goodell has done everything to make the work of the highest possible grade and so has won the confidence of the State Department of Education as a result of his efforts.

YOUTH OF 11 ROBS SEVERAL LOCAL PLACES

An example of infant precocity along criminal lines was found Wednesday night, when the police took into custody Joe Molner, a foreigner, about 11 years old, who lives in Webb street. Under questioning before Chief Sheridan, the lad confessed to several burglaries, the commission of which within the past week has baffled the police department.

About 8 o'clock last night it was discovered that the Coulter hardware store had been burglarized, and as Molner had been seen about there, it was deemed advisable to bring him in, and Juvenile Officer John Dwyer, with city policemen, Harter and Swinehart, got him at his home.

He was closely questioned, finally confessing that he had climbed the fire escape in the rear and gained an entrance by breaking a window at the second floor. A penknife that had been taken from the Coulter store was found on the lad, but this was all the incriminating evidence secured on his person.

According to his confession, however, he had burglarized the office of M. Schoenberg some days ago, and was also in there again last night. He told the police that it was he who had entered the office of T. O. Johnson, and the Hushler mill lately.

Last night he implicated two other foreign boys, Mike Molner (no relative of his) and Robert Swartz, both living in East Newark. These lads were brought in about midnight by the officers, but when Joe saw them he said that they were innocent and he alone was guilty. The boys were sent home.

At Schoenberg's, Molner got the first time, and also last night, some change from the safe.

Late Thursday afternoon Probate Judge Hunter in Juvenile court sentenced the boy to a term in the Boys' Industrial school, at Lancaster. Officer John Dwyer will take him to begin sentence Friday morning.

Lament of the Standpatters.

The cartoon in this issue is a vivid reminder of an enforced condition that has brought about by Democratic administrations in Ohio.

Prior to six years ago, under the old Republican "stand pat" regime in Ohio, the State Treasury afforded fat pickings for Republican State Treasurers, who pocketed the interest on public funds that they placed in favored banks, or invested in Columbus sky scrapers. The advent of a Democratic administration stopped this procedure, and the public funds have since earned more than a million dollars for the tax payers by being let out to banks on competitive bidding, and awarded to the banks paying the highest rate of interest for the use of the money. The saving of this vast sum of the people's own money helps swell the treasury surplus, which warrants and will produce a reduction in rates of taxation.

During the administration of Governor Cox former Republican State Treasurers and favored banks have been compelled to pay back into the State Treasury many thousands of dollars they had received illegally as interest on the public funds, not the least of which was from the bank of the Republican boss of Cincinnati.

The standpatters stand aghast at the enforced restitution to the state treasury of ill-gotten gains, and the beneficiaries of the old crooked system fain would rehabilitate themselves by being returned to power in Ohio and renew the practice of the system they were compelled to stop by the advent of a Democratic administration, and in the absence of which they would have continued to this day.

Do the people of Ohio want a return of the old system of utilizing public office for private gain?

Plumber and His Bill.

The plumber and his prices is an ancient joke. But the consumer fails to see the humor of it on the first of the month. Yet at the National Master Plumbers' convention the past week, it was denied that plumbers' materials are controlled by any trust.

Formerly the plumber was a factor only in city life. The spread of modern conveniences makes his bill an element of high cost of living in countless small villages and farm houses. With many plumbers, a high price is paid for poor work, which has to be done over again in a few years.

But although plumbers' wages are high, they have to keep changing help. It is a disagreeable and perhaps dangerous trade, at which men will not work unless well paid. Thus there are many green men in the business. Calling in many plumbers is about like a surgeon's exploratory operation for unknown diseases.

Some time large towns will have trade schools with plumbing courses to turn out competent workmen. Many people could save needless bills now if they would learn how to do simple things like shutting off water and packing valves.

Much is said about the different crises at the Niagara Falls mediation, but the only one of much significance seems to be when the dinner bell rings.

No doubt the girls deserve the rights for which they clamor, days and nights, and men should patient be and fair; I love the women passing well, but when they raise their "rebel yell" I'm glad my granny isn't there. The women ought to have a hand in governing this happy land—they have that right, and more to spare; this cheerfully I grant each maid—but when I see a suff parade, I'm glad Aunt Agnes isn't there. The dames, who help to bear the yoke, should have the right to smoke and play cheap politics and swear; but when the wives neglect their homes, and chase around with batty domes, I'm glad my grand-niece isn't there. I'd like to see the women gain all blessings that they would obtain, and all imagined laurels wear; but when I think of politics, with all its cheap and sordid tricks, I'm glad my sister isn't there. Let others' sisters, aunts and wives go forth and sacrifice their lives and resolute and paw the air; their sacred cause is all O. K., but I am thankful, every day, that Cousin Susan isn't there.

Children's Sayings

What was it your child or your neighbor's or your friend's child said yesterday or last week that made you smile or think? Children are ever saying or doing original or quaint things. Let's have them. The Advocate will be glad to receive communications along this line. Every communication must be signed but if the name is not to be printed kindly so indicate it. Stanley Miller's present satisfaction with Newark as a place in which to live, is merely a development of an innate love of the old town, even when compared to that of an Elvium, which his mind as a child, could not comprehend as existing in deshabitancy as a place of abode. Stanley when a little tot was guilty of some break of table etiquette for which he was reprimanded by his grandmother Scheidler, and he was cautioned that naughty children did not go to heaven.

"I don't care, if I don't. I want to stay right here. This is good enough for me," was the answer, and any sternness on the part of the elders, was dissipated in a general good natured laugh.

Sometimes a budding genius for poetry manifests itself in the very young. It is not always apparent that the author knows what he is trying to say, but that has even been observed in some of our more mature poets. The following is from the pen of a very small Newark girl:

"Oh goodness me I'll bring thy heart to thee. Oh, no, said the parents of the girl, You can't get your heart For you have thrown it away."

A mischievous youngster of four, who lives in Newark, displayed his childish exuberance over what he deemed a big event in the family not so very long ago. The little boy had been accustomed to arising early on holidays and occasions of unusual import. His grandfather died, and while the little fellow grieved, of course he was too tender in years to understand the loss, but his mother was none the less shocked on the morning of the funeral, when the little one crawled from his bed at an early hour and called to her:

"Well, what is it, sonny?" she asked.

"Oh, your funeral!" was the startling ejaculation.

Little Mary Jeannette, aged 5, was standing in front of her parents' home in Granville, patting her pony's nose, when a grown up friend approaching, asked in an alarmed manner:

"Mary Jeannette, aren't you afraid the pony will kick you?"

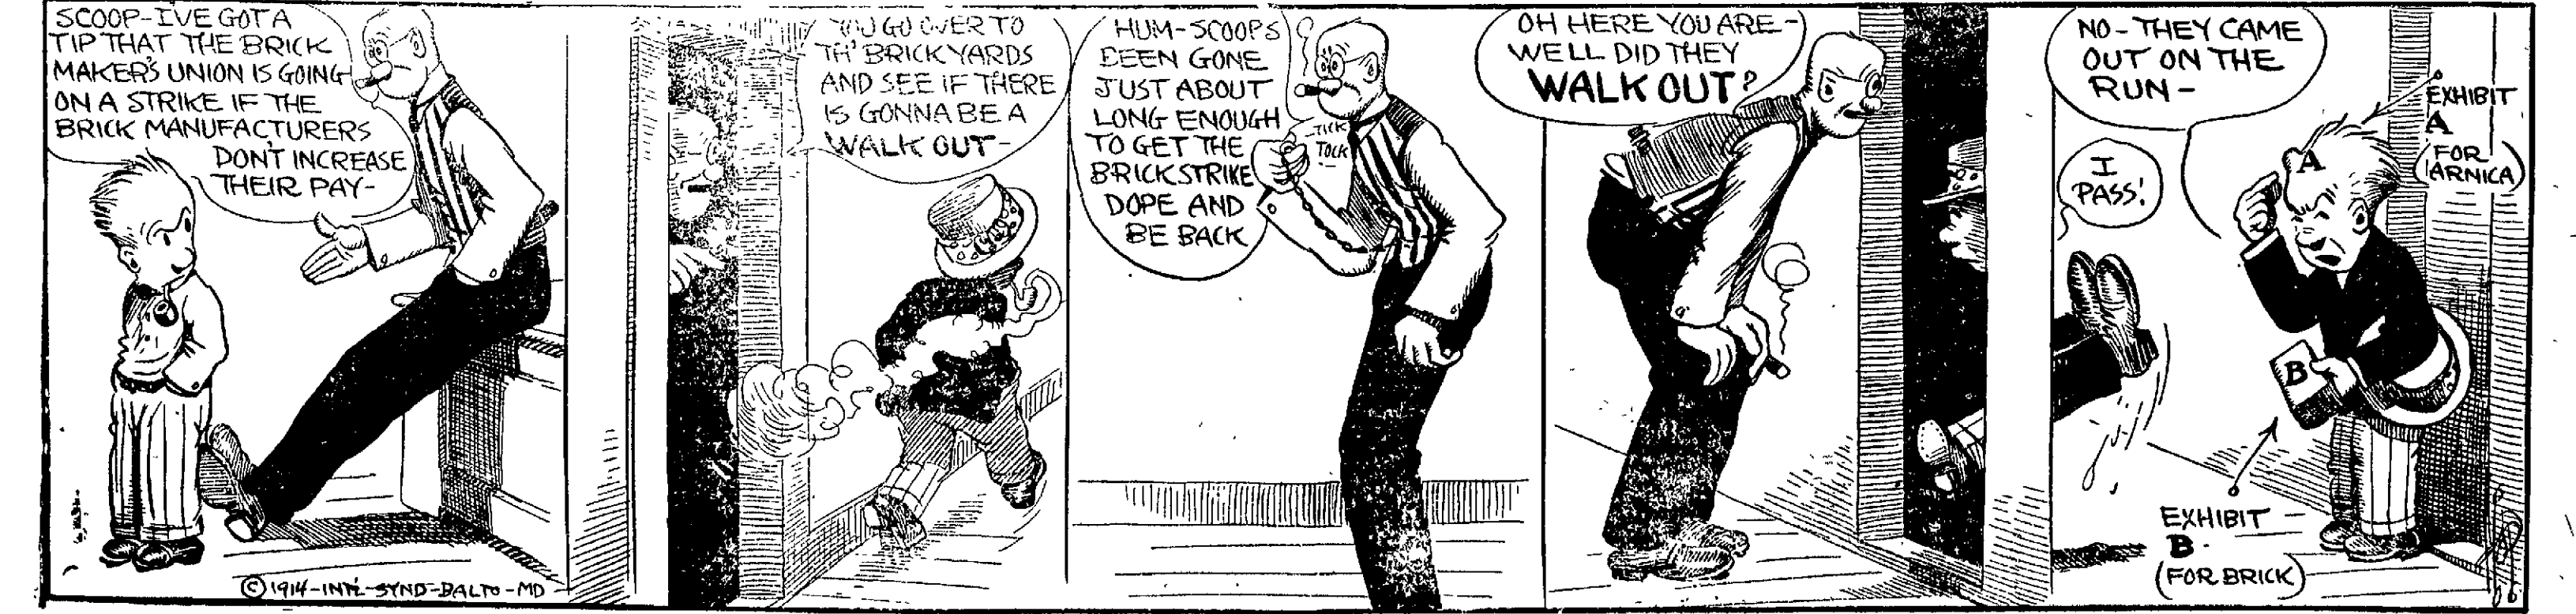

"No," said the tot. "He doesn't kick at this end."

It was centered with a large heart-shaped bride's cake around which was a bank of pink roses and smilax. Pink and white candles adorned the table, while the place cards were heart-shaped encircled with a wreath of roses. The favors were individual cake baskets tied with pink ribbon containing bride's cake. The other tables were centered with vases of pink and white roses and all were lighted with the tapers coupled with pink shades. A three course dinner was served.

CONVENTION OF EPWORTHS HAS CLOSED

Officers Elected and Resolutions Adopted—Delegates all Enjoyed Splendid Program Which Had Been Prepared.

Thursday afternoon's program closed the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Epworth League which was held at the Elizabeth M. E. church in West Newark, Wednesday and Thursday. Five counties and nearly fifty churches were represented and 150 delegates were present.

Thursday afternoon's session was opened at 1 o'clock with a business session at which the reports of the district officers and committees were heard. Officers for the following year were elected, and were installed at the close of the convention.

The symposium of the Junior League was held at 2:15 o'clock and a very interesting program of short talks and music was rendered. The numbers were, "How I Got the Junior League Vision and What Came of It," by Daisie Dunaway; "What We Would Have Missed in Our Florence Jones, Roseville; 'Some of Our Victories of This Past Year,' Stinchcomb, New Lexington; and 'Have the Pastors the Junior League Vision,' Rev. E. E. Stone, of Pataaskala.

At 3:15 o'clock Dr. A. H. Norcross, the district superintendent, gave an address on "Vision and Victory." His address was very eloquent.

Thursday morning's program was opened with the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Karl B. Alexander. The round table was conducted by Dr. W. S. Sheridan.

Short talks were given by Mrs. E. F. Andrew and Miss Grace England. Miss England will become a foreign missionary as soon as she graduates from Denison University next year. George Deaver gave a short talk on social service, and the morning session was concluded by an address by Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, of Muskingum college.

Following is the list of officers elected and installed.

President—C. D. Cauer of Pataaskala.

First Vice President—Miss Hazel Heinke, of the Euclid church, Zanesville.

Second Vice President—Miss Edna Ermine, Central church, Zanesville.

Third Vice President—William George Deaver, Crooksville, Ohio.

Fourth Vice President—Miss Guy Fischer, Newark.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Edith Demming, Newark.

Recording Secretary—Miss Emma Baird, New Lexington.

Treasurer—Miss Bertha McCray, Granville.

Junior League Superintendent—Mrs. Pansie Meade, Pataaskala.

Executive Committee—P. L. Vanatta, New Lexington; P. H. Fry, Newark; Fred S. Smith, Granville.

Committee on Nominations—Misses Mary E. Deffenbaugh, Newark; Lottie Pain, Newark; Mary Bumbaugh, Newark; Homer Denison, Newark; Quincy Cheadle, Newark.

The resolutions reported by the resolutions committee were a resolution in favor of nation-wide prohibition, a resolution thanking Dr. Sheridan for his services, and a resolution thanking Dr. Fry of Newark, the orchestra, and the ladies for the support of the delegates.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
The program of Wednesday afternoon was opened by the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. P. H. Fry at 12:45 o'clock. Following the devotional exercises Miss Boyd, on behalf of the local Epworth Leaguers, gave the address of welcome to the delegates from other cities and churches. Miss Boyd emphasized the large amount of work that the Epworth Leaguers had to do and encouraged all present to work to secure new members. Miss Boyd spoke for five minutes.

The address of welcome was responded to in a very impressive manner by Brother Andrew of the League. He stated "the door is open, and there is a place to prepare ourselves before we go in the door. The door is the Spiritual door. A greater door is open to the Epworth League than ever before." He put great stress upon the need of more study of religion in the place of extraneous and material things.

Dr. Herbert Welch, of Ohio Wesleyan University then addressed the meeting from 2 till 3 o'clock. His topic was "The Present Social Unrest." Dr. Welch is a very impressive speaker, and his address was one of the best that has been heard at the convention. He prophesied that the present social unrest threatened a social revolution that would either be accomplished by peaceful or belligerent means. As a solution of this problem he proposed that the church should solve the problem by taking up the work and interesting others in it. Much of the speaker's address was taken up with denunciation of liquor, gambling and other vices which are undermining the country.

Reed Alexander, of Pataaskala, spoke for five minutes on "Increasing One's Value." Mr. Alexander argued for the developing of efficiency and said that "efficiency spells success." "If you look at the successful people you will see those who took the hard things in the past," was one of the pungent remarks that the speaker made.

Following Mr. Alexander, Mr. P. H. Harlan, of Newark, spoke upon "The Dependable Epworth Leaguer." His remarks were concise and emphatic and very pertinent to the duty of the Leaguers.

"Look Up and Lift Up," was the topic of Etha Vogt of Zanesville, who was the last speaker of the afternoon. The title of her talk is the motto of the League. She said: "Look up is a challenge to help one's self. Lift is a challenge to help others."

The afternoon program was closed with music.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.
Wednesday evening's program was opened at 7 o'clock with the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. H. G. Gordon. Following the devotional exercises, remarks were made by the executive committee. Rev. Fry spoke on "Vision and Victory."

He divided his remarks into five parts, speaking on five V's—"Vision, Valor, Variety of Methods and Victory." He said, "When these four are obtained we have victory."

General secretary, Dr. W. F. Sheridan, of Chicago, addressed the meeting from 7:45 to 8:45 o'clock. He talked on the national convention of the League which is to be held at Buffalo during the first five days of July. He urged all to attend and talked of the merits of the League and its work.

At 8:45 refreshments were served to over 150 in the reception room of the church. Toasts were given by several of the members and a program of very entertaining music was rendered by the orchestra.

Obituary

Mrs. Mary Williams.

Mrs. Mary Williams, widow of the late Evan Williams, died Wednesday morning at 8:20 at her home, 115 South Fifth street, after a week's illness. She was born Dec. 7, 1838, at Utica, N. Y., and her demise marked the last of eight children of William and Mary Jenkins, who came to America from Wales in 1838. They settled at Utica, N. Y., and lived there until 1855, when the family, consisting of the mother, then a widow, and five sons and three daughters moved to Ohio, settling in West Newark, at that time called Lockport. The deceased has lived here ever since. She was united in marriage to Evan Williams in 1867, and to this union six children were born, two children and the husband having preceded her to the grave; one daughter dying in January, 1887, the husband in November, 1908, and the son in May, 1912. Those left to mourn the loss of this good mother are Ebenezer Williams, Mrs. May Richards, Mrs. Maude House and John Williams, all of this city. Mrs. Williams was kind, loving and affectionate and a good Christian woman, always desiring to do the best she could to all. She early united with the Congregational church and was loyal to the Master's cause until called to her reward.

The funeral will be held at the home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Geo. Henshaw, pastor of the First Congregational church officiating. Burial at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mr. George Mayhew.

Word has been received in Newark of the death of Mr. George Mayhew, 86, at his home in Milwaukee, on Saturday, June 17. Mr. Mayhew was a brother of Mrs. L. B. Wing who formerly resided in this city. Mr. Mayhew was a member of the Board of Trustees for an Asylum for the Insane at Milwaukee and had just returned from a trip in their interest, and it is thought that owing to his advanced years it proved too great a task for his strength and hastened his death.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

The Wife Who Grows Young.

"Did you go to the Barrington's party last night?" asked Grandmother, as the Young Matron sank into a chair on the piazza.

"No," sighed the Young Matron. "Walter just wouldn't go. He said he was tired and it was hot and he wasn't going to sit around and be bored for a whole evening and so I had to stay home. I was so disappointed. Minnie phoned me this morning everybody had a lovely time. Walter is getting so he won't go anywhere." The Young Matron sighed.

Grandmother regarded her a few minutes attentively. Then she said, "My niece dropped in yesterday morning and she said her husband did not want to go."

"Men are all alike," sighed the Young Matron. "I wonder why after they get married they want to glue themselves to a chair and never go anywhere."

Grandmother laughed. "Perhaps because their wives make home so attractive. But that is not the real reason, and it is not what I am going to tell you. My niece said she was going to the party and she did. She was in today to tell me about it."

"How did she manage it?" asked the Young Matron eagerly. "It isn't any fun though, if your husband is grouchy and disagreeable and acts as if he were a martyr," she concluded dependently.

"No," admitted Grandmother. "But I do not believe my niece's husband went in that spirit. I think from what she said, she rather waked him up."

"What did she do?" again eagerly asked the Young Matron.

"I never saw my niece so in earnest, as she was yesterday morning," Grandmother began. "She was quite worked up and quite decided as to what she was going to do. And I think it was earnestness and her decision and perhaps a bit of indignation that together made the desired impression on her husband."

The Young Matron listened attentively.

"When she was telling me about it this morning, she said that when her husband refused to go to the party she told him that if he wanted to sit at home till he grew roots, he could, but that for her part, she wasn't going to; that she wanted to dance, that she wanted to talk with other men,—not but what he was all right, but a monotonous diet of any kind wasn't healthful,—and that for every day he grew old she was going to grow young, and more to the same effect. She didn't do it disagreeably or quarrelsomely. But she said the conviction had been growing that her husband was settling into a rut, that he was fossilizing, that he was cutting off all avenues of growth and progress and she knew it wouldn't do. She felt that unless she took the initiative, they would drop out of all social intercourse and activities; and she knew that was not good for them or the home. And she decided she would wake him up. He's too young for that yet. And so she laid out her prettiest dress; and after dinner she went upstairs to get ready, humming just the most enticing waltz she knew. And she said it wasn't long before he was getting into his dress-suit; and by the time they started, he was in as gay spirits as she."

"It might not work with all men, though," sighed the Young Matron.

"I think it would if you went about it tactfully. They should be made to want a good time. When a person is sick, his appetite is tempted with just the right dishes set before him in dainty guise. A man who wants to shut himself off from all social intercourse, who wants no more of life than to eat and sleep and doze over a newspaper and grumble a few remarks about the commonplaces of living is sick. He has mental malaria. His social circulation is sluggish. The appetite of his spirit has waned. Prepare him something very tempting in the way of social stimulus and diversion, serve it in some very relishing form, and he'll begin to recover."

The Young Matron looked dubious.

"It's worth trying," advised Grandmother. "A man shouldn't be allowed to degenerate into a turnip or a clam. And the home that is not in touch with the outside world is narrow and dull. It is not the best sort of home for children to grow up in, nor for fathers and mothers to grow old in."

"The Pryor's have a party next week. And I have a dream of a summer dress," meditated the Young Matron.

"Go to it," laughed Grandmother, slantly.

HOSPITAL IS NEARING COMPLETION

Few people in the city of Newark are conscious of the nearness to completion of the new City Hospital, situated in the corner of Buena Vista and Indiana streets. The work has been progressing and in thirty days the hospital will be virtually completed and ready for the installation of the furnishings and equipment.

In the opinion of many, Newark is to have one of the finest city hospitals in the state. The building is a magnificent three-story structure and contains all of the modern improvements that have been developed in architecture in recent years—something that the citizens of Newark can point to with pride. The building is fireproof, spacious, light and airy and is located where the patients will be away from bustle and noise of traffic. It is surrounded by trees and beautiful grounds.

Taking the building by floors, the first floor contains 19 rooms; the second floor, 21 rooms; the third floor, 23 rooms; and the basement, 24 rooms. With the addition of the old Everett residence in the rear, which is connected with the new building by a brick passage, the hospital will contain 103 rooms. The old Everett residence contains 16 rooms and is being remodeled and equipped to be used for the nurses' quarters.

One feature of the hospital is the sun parlors. These are situated on the first, second and third floors on both north end and south end of the building, totaling six parlors which will be light and airy in summer and warm and cozy in winter.

On the first floor are the reception rooms, the offices, sun parlors, an accouchement room and a special room in which babies may be quartered. On the second floor are two public wards, eight private wards, one diet kitchen and four toilets. The third floor contains one large public ward, eight private rooms, one diet kitchen, four toilets, the operating room, the surgeon's room and a nurses' room. The hospital contains only one operating room and it has been suggested by local physicians that one of the other rooms be equipped for an operating room. The basement contains seven storage rooms, one regular kitchen, several diet kitchens, a servants' hall, servants dining room, pantry, an incinerator, a laboratory and a dark room equipped for photographic purposes and laundry and a drying room.

Two stairways connect all of the floors. There is one elevator running to all the floors and several dumb waiters.

Fifteen men are now at work on the building which is being built by C. P. Kircher & Company of Athens, Ohio.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, and I could not do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live. Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong. 'I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering.'—Mrs. MARTHA SKEAY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

B. F. McDONALD WINS SUCCESS ON PLATFORM

(Special to the Advocate.)

Hope, Ark., June 25.—Hon. B. F. McDonald of Newark, Ohio, delivered his celebrated lecture on "Moonshine" here at the Chautauqua yesterday making a splendid impression as he had elsewhere over the state. Mr. McDonald started on his lecture tour June 18 at Batesville. Today he is at Magnolia and has a daily speaking engagement running late into August. He will speak in Missouri and Iowa and at numerous points in Arkansas up to about September 1st.

The chautauquas, such as Newark is to have beginning July 16, are well attended in this state.

The writer heard Mr. McDonald speak yesterday and was proud of his success.

Arkansas possesses untold wealth for a people who will hustle and develop it but the trouble is that the "Hill Billy" is perfectly satisfied with just a living and the state will do with scarcely no effort.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

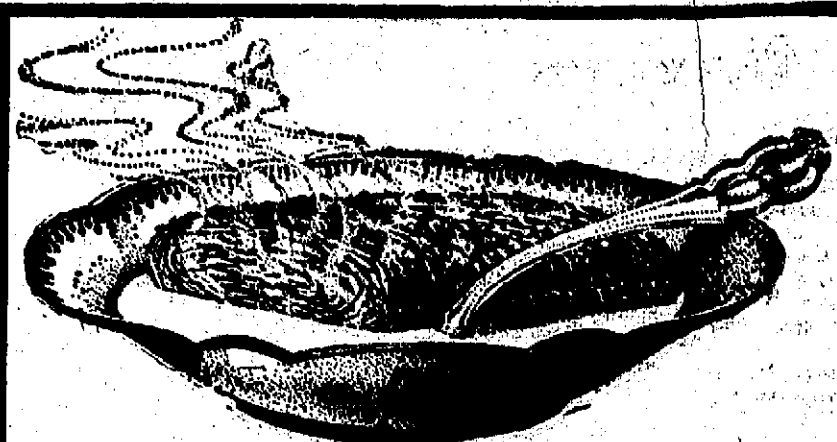

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. Band Day, With Two Concerts, to Be One of Chautauqua's Big Features

FERULLO AND HIS BAND

WITH a record of long and notable engagements in Chicago, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and practically every other large city in the country, Francesco Ferullo, with what the Chicago Tribune designates "The Greatest Band in America," will be here for an entire day of Chautauqua week. Ferullo is absolutely unique. Among all the bandmasters who have toured this country from one extremity to the other there is none more resourceful and authoritative than Ferullo in the conveyance to his men of his own ideas of interpretation. His baton flashes like lightning. His style is individual, picturesque, fascinating and inimitable. Ferullo's longest engagements in recent years include ten weeks at Palm Garden in Los Angeles, sixteen weeks at the Coliseum in Chicago, four weeks at Lakeside Park in Denver, eighteen weeks at Delmar Garden in St. Louis, six weeks at Idora Park in Oakland, Cal., and similar periods in Spokane, Seattle, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh and other cities of size. The Portland Oregonian in describing Ferullo's farewell concert says: "The huge auditorium was crowded with people until it could hold no more, and it is no exaggeration to say that fully 1,000 people were unable to obtain seats or standing room. As the magnificent strains of the 'Organ Offertory' came to an end the audience went wild, cheering, clapping and stamping in a vain effort to express its appreciation and delight." "No other band has ever captivated the Salt Lake City public as did Ferullo's Band," says the Salt Lake Herald-Republican. The Chicago Examiner says, "Ferullo has the best band ever in Chicago."

his friends enjoyed genuine turtle soup which was pronounced by all present as delicious.
